I sent my article to FBI New Haven two weeks ago. I am disappointed that it was not forwarded to you. Two documents are attached, the article & my sources. I'm hopeful that you will have the opportunity to review it quickly. I will call you in a few minutes to confirm your receipt of this e-mail. Thank you.

Another article, this one on bin Laden. Attached are two files. One, the text. The other are the references. The article was prepared to be included in the forthcoming Encyclopedia on U.S. Intelligence, to be published by Taylor & Francis.

A quick turn around from [REDACTED] would be very much appreciated so I can get it to the publisher who is waiting on it.

btw, the article I wrote for ASIS is supposed to be published this week on-line. I don't have the URL yet. Thank you.

Hi Bill ~

Your article was reviewed by [REDACTED] who is okay with the article being published. Although, there is one correction, the Cyber AD's name is misspelled; it should be Shawn not Sean.

Please let me know if you have any other questions.

Thanks!

Attached is a Word .docs "Attack on America's Critical Infrastructure: Accurate or Anemic Assertions?" I was asked to write for publication in a forthcoming issue of ASIS [American Society of Industrial Security] Newsletter.

I have spoken with [REDACTED] She asked that I send it in for review prior to submitting it to ASIS.

SAC Mertz may want it to go to the Bu as well. Pat Sulley used to be the Chief of the Pre-Publication Review Unit. But, I haven't spoken to her in some time; she may even be retired now. Thus, I will need an e-mail address for the Pre-Publication Review Unit. However, SAC Mertz may want to include an addendum. Thus, feel free to forward it to HQ yourself.

In any event, I would appreciate an expedite as I will be going out of country for an extended period of time in short order. Thank you.

Bill
